AMBULANCE FUND ALMOST COMPLETED

Driver to be Chosen by College from Five Applicants one of Whom will be Recommended by Committee

WORK TO BEGIN JANUARY 1ST

Approximately $1,200 has been raised in the college for the purchase of a Hamilton Ambulance to be used in France. The campaign for funds has been vigorous, and the students have responded to the extent of nearly $1,000, while the faculty has added $200 to this amount. As soon as all the money is collected, it will be forwarded to the leaders of the American Ambulance Field Service Fund in New York city, which has arranged for the purchase of the Hamilton ambulance. The cost of the machine, completely equipped, is $1,100, but anything in addition to this sum will be used for running expenses, which amount is about $50 a month.

Five Men Apply for Job

Five men have made their applications for the position of driver of the ambulance. They are, Thomas L. Orr '17, Louis J. Baumer '17, Norman Insley '18, E. Haladay Woods '18, J. Kenneth Morrow '19. Professors Carruth and Ristine, and Joseph Behan '17 compose the committee for the appointment of the driver. Recommendation will be made to the college this morning for final decision.

A letter has been received from the American Ambulance Fund expressing their appreciation of the work being done in the college, and also emphasizing the need of ambulances. The letter states that the French army, which never asks favors, has implied that any number of cars, such as are now being used, will greatly facilitate the handling of wounded soldiers in the war zones.

Organ Recital Pleases Many

First of Y. M. C. A. Social Events a Joy to Music Lovers

The organ recital by Mr. C. DeWitt Garretson, of Utica, given Thursday night in the College Chapel under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., brought to the undergraduates some of the best organ composition and execution ever heard on the Hill. Mrs. Brown assisted with the violin and her remarkable technique elicited much applause. Over a hundred undergraduates and friends of the college enjoyed the evening.

After Donoghue's introduction, Mr. Garretson explained the opening number of the program, "The Suite Gothique," by Boellman. The player opened the "Choral" of this first number with a strong attack and a peculiarly beautiful execution. The choir, the chant, and the long echoes of a cathedral were reproduced so as to bring them vividly to the mind of the listener. Similar in tone-colors to the second number, with its variations, and slow, powerful melodies, the "Minuet" was played with a solemn quietness which seemed to expand the thoughts of the listeners in to that stately measure which it portrayed. The "Priere a Notre Dame"

CHASE SPEAKS FOR MILITARY TRAINING

No sooner was Prof. "Dan" Chase spied in chapel last Tuesday than he was "wanted." With his usual genial grin, he responded concerning his present work in military training.

"The State needs 600 men today to take positions in public schools thruout the state as military training instructors," he said. "With the compulsory training now required, there has come a demand for young men to teach the school children of the state, and to instruct teachers in military tactics. Likewise, more attention is being given to gym work, and the simple exercises you receive in the gym here are an excellent preparation for the work."

"If any of you contemplate careers as teachers, there is a wonderfully wide field for specializing in athletic and military training."

Prof. Chase is in this vicinity in the interests of the State.

DR. FLEXNER WILL SPEAK IN FIRST MYERS LECTURE

WILL DESCRIBE RECENT EXPERIENCES OF MEDICAL WORK IN CHINA. UNDER ROCKEFELLER FOUNDATION.

MODERN HOSPITAL AT PEKIN

Dr. Simon Flexner, head of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research in New York, has promised to come to the Hill some time after the Christmas holidays as one of the Myers lecturers. He will probably take as his subject some phase of his medical experience while in China last summer.

Dr. Flexner, with Dr. William H. Welch of Johns Hopkins, and Wallace Buttrick of New York, spent six weeks in China last spring under the Rockefeller Foundation. At Pekin they instituted a medical school for the introduction of western medical science into China. It is well known that the Chinesee until recently have stubbornly withstood innovations. Of modern medical methods they are still profoundly ignorant, the masses firmly swearing by their old practices. The struggle of Dr. Flexner and his companions against this prejudice has brought forth many interesting experiences. In the end they were successful and expect to have their hospital in Pekin manned entirely by Chinese doctors trained in the most advanced medical methods before the end of the year.

Dr. A. P. Saunders considers the college fortunate to have obtained so eminent an authority on medical subjects. Of the Myers lecturers for the winter Dr. Saunders has no announcements to make. He is in communication with some well known men whose names will be given out as soon as they are definitely obtained. No special subject will be taken up this year, but the lectures will be upon matters of general current interest. The number of lec-

Schwartz '18 Elected Football Captain

Star of Backfield for Three Years Will Lead Promising Material Next Fall

The football team met Wednesday afternoon and elected Carlton D. Schwartz '18, of Clinton, captain for 1917. He has played for three years on the team, always the star back of the season, and his work the last two years accounted for most of the Buff and Blue victories.

C. D. Schwartz '18, Captain-Elect

Schwartz prepared at Ilion High School. He is five feet eleven inches tall, and weighs 155 pounds. During his freshman year he showed steady and consistent playing, and soon developed into the mainstay of the team. His passes have always been brilliant and were features of every game, especially that with Union last year, when Hamilton did not fumble once. He has always outpunted his opponent kicker, and easily averages twenty-five yards in running back kicks.

—No classes Thursday, November 30th. Thanksgiving Day.

INTERCOLLEGIATE DEBATE

The Debate Council received the proposition for the Intercollegiate Debate last night. It reads: "Resolved, That the United States could better protect the Western Hemisphere by an understanding with Great Britain than by the policy known as the Monroe Doctrine."

Interclass debate will be held about December 20, if the classes will pick their teams and begin to prepare at once.

INDIVIDUAL SUMMARY OF FOOTBALL VARSITY

Season's Play Shows 19 Men Who Earned Right to Vote for Captain by Consistent Work

The 1916 season has seen the largest number of men out for football which a Hamilton coach has had under his charge for some time. Every night from 25 to 35 men were in suits, and due to the frequent injuries to the regular players, a large number have seen some varsity play.

William H. Dayton '17. Altho set back at the beginning of the season by a severe injury received in practice, which kept him out of the Columbia game, "Bill" came back with a punch and proved a capable captain thruout the season. His sure passes from center resulted in very little juggling of the ball in the backfield.

William McL. Bristol, Jr., '17, proved an efficient field general until put out with a bad foot. Ability at grabbing down forward passes marked his early season play. He closes a varsity career of four years.

John A. Jones '17. One of the best ground gainers on the varsity this year was "Johnny" Jones, who went thru the season uninjured, playing at right half. His powerful line plunging made many first downs for the Buff and Blue.

L. Meola '17. Playing for the first time as a varsity man, Meola made a great start in the Columbia game by grabbing a fumble and racing 60 yards for a touchdown and the winning score. A hard player, he held down the right wing position until put out by an injury.

A. C. Woolnough '17. With a record as a powerful line man, "Addie" played at right tackle in the first two games, where his 210 pounds of beef and brawn did good work. A broken ankle kept him on the side lines thru the rest of the season.

William L. Huntsman '18. Another player who alternated tackle and guard positions in the early season games. Both on the offense and defense Huntsman's weight and experience made him a hard, consistent line man.

M. W. Lowell '18 proved one of the strongest men on the line during the latter part of the season, playing regular left guard after the first two games. On the defense his specialty was breaking thru the line to smear the opponent's plays before well under way.

Charles M. Peck '18. Playing left halfback in every game, "Chuck" earned a name for himself as a line plunger and a sure tackler on the secondary defense. He could always be counted on to get his man, and many gains by the other backs were behind him as interference.

Arthur P. Root '18 played at end in parts of four games and proved himself one of the most useful substitutes on the squad. Handicapped by his weight and a lack of experience, by hard work he developed into a sure tackler and was fast in getting down under punts.

C. D. Schwartz '18. In his third year at fullback "Cart" showed his usual brilliant offensive playing. He was the best broken field runner on the team, and he averaged 25 yards in running back punts and kickoffs. In the Hobart game, Hamilton's only score came after an 80-yard run by Schwartz thru the whole opposing team. He did most of the forward passing and outpunted his man in every game. Against Union he had the better of Rosekrans by 7 yards to the kick. He should be a capable leader next season.

Wiliam M. McLean, Jr., '19, was the heaviest regular in the line and distinguished himself at low charging and opening up holes thru the opposing forwards. His regular position was guard, with a shift to end in the Rochester game.

H. B. Ogden '19. As alternate guard and center, his play was steady and consistent. His best showing was in the Columbia contest, playing the whole game at the pivot position.

Leslie M. Pape '19. Pape made his debut at Rochester and played regular quarter in the remaining contests. He ran the team well, displaying good headwork. Quarterback runs thru center brought many first downs and two scores against St. Lawrence.

Ralph E. Spinning '19 went in at end in mid-season and proved his right to the position by sure tackling and speed in getting down the field after kicks. He also showed ability at breaking thru the interference and nailing the opposing runner.

William P. Welsh '19. The first of the season "Bill" promised to be one of the fastest men on the squad, playing left end in the first three games. Weak ankles kept him out of a suit until the last few days.

William C. Bolenius '20. Taking a regular place in the line in the R. P. I. game, Bolenius showed himself well qualified for the position and was a strong addition to the line. On the defense he more than held his own, very few gains coming thru left tackle.

S. B. Cairns '20. Cairns made left end in the late season and his playing improved with every game. His experience this year will prove valuable next fall.

H. K. Farrar '20. When Schwartz was out of the game with a broken thumb, Farrar went in at halfback and proved a strong factor in vanquishing St. Lawrence. Plugging the line hard and outpunting his opponent, he showed ability that will be valuable to next year's team. He also played parts of the last two games.

T. B. Gorman '20. The only freshman who played the whole season, his regular position being right tackle. At low charging and tackling he was equally efficient—a good all-round player.

College Customs.

The freshmen romped into chapel Friday morning. They romped with the sophomores before and after the exercises. Most of them wore rompers for the occasion. Some of them were even bad and bold enough to go without their green caps, at least temporarily. Some of them stepped on the grass, then looked around to see if they were safe. Some others didn't dare so much deviltry. But most of them wore red neckties some proudly and some hiddenly. The sophomores resented the insolence of the first-year men. Consequently there ensued a general free-for-all en route to chapel and immediately following prayers. The campus suffered accordingly, and some of the upperclassmen were drawn into the fray.

The cause of the unwarranted disturbance seems rather vague. Rumors of banquets, a general feeling of the care-free variety, and a noticeable uppishness on the part of certain freshmen seem to be the foundations for breaking away from custom. The new men evidently argued that they were "just as good" as the yearlings, and inasmuch as they outnumber them about two to one, they might as well run things to suit themselves.

Life hopes that by this time it is generally understood that the freshmen are to keep their proper places, that they must obey college customs, such as keeping to the paths, smoking nothing but corncob pipes when on the campus, wearing their green caps and toques, and above all things respecting upperclassman authority. Breaches of this latter custom ought not to be tolerated for a moment.

Current opinion has it that some of the sophomores show more sprouts of evergreen than most of the regular college verdure. This may be. and particular cases should be dealt with particularly. The college customs remain, and they give the second-year men more leeway than newcomers on the Hill. The fact that a few men are upstarts does not mean breakage of college rules and customs. The sophomores have to do with freshman discipline. Public horsing is their own peculiar instrument, and they should use it whenever necessary.

Winter Orations.

A list of the subjects for the winter orations, or more properly, the Head, Pruyn and Kirkland orations, is printed in this issue of Life. Believing that a word to the wise is sufficient, we wish to remind the seniors, to whom the competition is open, that these orations must be submitted to the President not later than noon of the day following the Christmas recess. Rules governing the writing of the orations may be found in the catalog. Often the announcements of awards show that there has been little or no competition for these honors.

Postponement of action in this direction means a repetition of former laxity.

WINTER ORATION SUBJECTS

Writing subjects for the Head, Pruyn and Kirkland Orations, due on the day following Christmas recess are as follows:

Head: The Leaven of Federalism

Pruyn: The Political Duties of the Educated Man to His Community.

Kirkland: The period of the Herods.

These orations may not contain more than twelve hundred words, and each Prize Oration is delivered at Commencement.

ORGAN RECITAL PLEASES MANY

delighted the audience with its strong and fervent notes, swelling from the softness of the murmured prayer to the loud, stirring chant of the Notre Dame choir.

Tschaikowski's "Andante from the Violin Concerto" was artistically executed by Mrs. Brown with regard for its meditative, subtle harmonies. The "Chanson Triste," a slow, sad melody, was effectively reproduced.

Mr. Garretson's theme interpretation and tone expression were skillfully executed. Both he and Mrs. Brown were applauded for an encore, a short serenade by Pierne.

After the recital a reception was held at Silliman Hall by the Y. M. C. A.

—An interesting feature of Brown's new interfraternity code of rushing rules is that which forbids money being spent on the freshmen.

THE WEAK IN BRINE

The Grid Gods mixed a lot of slush,
And Union drew a royal flush;
Their spirit tho was far out-played
For we-all fought altho dismayed.

The freshmen reared and wore red ties,
Took off their caps and yelled green lies.

Prof. Garretson and Mrs. Brown
Some splendid music handed down;
D. T. swung and D. U. danced,
And at Chi Psi ('tis said) they pranced.

New York Alumni Meet at Stewart's

Friday noon fourteen Hamilton alumni lunched together at Stewart's Restaurant, Park Place, New York City. Those of the "bunch" there included Benn Barber '10, "Winnie" Kellogg '08, "Monty" Paige '16, "Eddy" Blackmar '13, "Norm" Marsh '14, "Bullet" Burritt ex-'17. "Leff" Brown '14, Lee Bristol '14, "Charlie" Baumer '16, "Dutch" Wenigmann '13, "Jack" Calder ex-'14, "Phoeb" Williams '08, Harold Cross '13, "Curt" Knox '12.

Next year's football schedule and coaching were extensively discussed. The opinion was generally held that Hamilton athletics have become important enough to warrant employing a competent coach thruout the entire year to have general charge of athletics. It was thought that such a system would make the coach better acquainted with the material in the college and would raise the standard of the teams. It was suggested that the football schedule be made up early and that an effort be put forth to arrange a game with Wesleyan, Williams or Amherst.

PROFESSOR LEWIS AT NATIONAL COUNCIL

Also Attends Summer School Luncheon While in New York

Teachers and instructors of English and Public Speaking thruout the country will be present. Prof. Lewis is one of the directors of the organization, and on Saturday afternoon he will speak before the branch of the meeting devoted to the professional training of high school teachers of English.

While in New York, Prof. Lewis will also be present at a luncheon of the Summer School students of Hamilton College, which will be held Friday, Dec. 1. The committee in charge of the luncheon is Mr. Heydrick, Dr. Redmond, Miss Hilliard and Miss Ayre, of the Summer School.

The French people recognize the value of the work done by the American Ambulance Corps, and fifty-four members of the corps have been decorated with the croix de guerre, a military medal presented for bravery in the field, and two men in the organization have received the "Medaille Militaire," which is the highest reward for military service in France.

The ambulance drivers receive no compensation aside from board and lodging. The expenses are about $400 a year. The French passenger lines give a reduction of twenty-five per cent. to all volunteers.

With Hamilton Alumni

—William Ross Lee '00 of Utica, district attorney-elect of Oneida County, spoke at the Utica Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon on "A Thanksgiving Message."

—Donald H. McGibeney '14 spoke last Monday at Wilson College, Chambersburg, Pa., on war subjects similar to those of his recent address in chapel.

—Prescott '15 and Miller '16 were on the Hill Thursday.

—W. T. Purdy '06 was on the Hill last week. While in college Mr. Purdy wrote the song "Buff and Blue, You are a Grand Old Team." After his graduation he went to Chicago where he now lives. He continued to write college marching songs, his most notable success being "On, Wisconsin." He also has written "Go Chicago, Go," and "The March of the Maroons," which are the most popular marches on the campus of the University of Chicago today.

BASKETBALL SEASON OPENS WITH FLOURISH

Last Night Sees First Game in Intrafraternity Series. Teams Will Play Three Nights a Week

With two weeks of preliminary practice, the nine entries in the Intrafraternity Basketball league are in good shape to tackle their schedules. The first games listed for last night were: Sigma Phi-Delta Upsilon; Alpha Delta Phi-Chi Psi. No games will be played tomorrow night but games are scheduled for Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings.

The Dekes and D. U.'s seem to have the best chances. The Dekes, champions of last year, have four of their winning five with them, and should be a strong contender. The D. U.'s have also formed a five of seasoned material that should get off to a strong start. The Neutrals have not yet been able to select their quintet, so that nothing is known of their strength. Following are the line-ups of the other crowds:

Alpha Delta Phi: Stone and Kaiser, forwards; Romer, center; Kelly and Sandblom, guards.

Delta Upsilon: Behan and Bentley, forwards; Lowell, center; Griffith and Pape, guards.

Psi Upsilon: Fursman and Farrar, forwards; Calkins, center; Russell and Shields, guards.

Sigma Phi: Bristol and Parmelee, forwards; Johnson, center; Kennedy and Ogden, guards.

Delta Kappa Epsilon: Moffat and Welsh, forwards; Brockway, center; Donohue and Donoghue, guards.

Chi Psi: Root and Longstaff, forwards; McLean, center; Lyon and Kneeland, guards.

Theta Delta Chi: Pendleton and Morrow, forwards; McLachlan, center; Luce and Allen, guards.

Emerson Literary Society: Powers and Hamlin, forwards; Bratton, center; Parlon and F. Moore, guards.

NO STACKING OF ROOMS

The first meeting of the freshman and Sophomore classes was held after chapel Thursday to settle certain "grievances." Stacking rooms was abolished by a unanimous vote of the two classes. A sophomore suggested the reform, and a freshman seconded the motion.

A picture of the class in pedagogy was taken Thursday for publication by the State Board of Education in a book written to describe the progress of the pedagogic science in the state. Hamilton was the first college in the state to be granted "College Graduate Certificates" for students who had completed the course in pedagogy.

1918 PROM PLANS MEAN LESS EXPENSE

Decorations Will Be Simple, and Feature Dances Abolished. Stunts Planned

Chairman George Flesh and his committee haev preparations well on the highway to a successful Prom. The outstanding features of the year's biggest social event have been decided upon.

The most radical departure from the dances of former years is the fact that 1918's Prom is to be cheaper. The committee wants to keep the tax under $5 if it can possibly be done. The change means cutting out all unnecessary features. Streamers and snow dances will be abolished.

The decorations are to be simpler, altho not an inch of space will be left uncovered. Roberts' decorator will have charge of the work. As usual, booths will be erected around the floor. The new Hamilton Union will be represented.

No definite arrangements have been made in regard to the music. George VanAuken, who has charge of securing the orchestra, says that Zita and Collins, both of Albany, are bidding fair for the job. Each has a crackerjack orchestra, and "Van" guarantees music of the traditional Prom quality. The stand for the musicians will be put up at the north end of the Gym.

"Si" Eddy has charge of the programs. He is looking over a host of samples and has practically made his choice. 1918's dance cards will probably be of black leather, somewhat like '17's, but the inside form will be changed. The work will be done by Wright of Philadelphia.

Steward Palmer will again do the catering, and Wilard & Tournay, of the village, will have charge of the floor.

Chairman Flesh says that the committee has two or three features up its sleeve. These are to be new departures, and not of the old moonlight dance type. Their main object will be to stir up pep and to do away with extreme formality and stiltedness.

Ball Team Will Play Wesleyan

Wesleyan has been substituted on the baseball schedule for Williams on April 21. The change was recently ordered by the General Association Committee and Manager Kelly has already completed arrangements for a trip to Middletown for the Wesleyan game.

The Williams team was considered a little too much for the Hill nine, for it is ranked with only the foremost baseball colleges and semi-professional nines in the country. While Wesleyan usually puts out a very capable crew, it is expected that the contest with its ballmen will be more evenly matched. The Wesleyan trip will be the longest journey of the season.

Hobart's ball authorities have pressed Manager Kelly for a game but the faculty committee has denied the privilege of one more game usually scheduled.

ALUMNI NOMINATED

The Executive Council of the Undergraduate Association met Saturday and nominated the following alumni for alumni members of the Council for the ensuing year: Soper '04, Rudd '90, R. U. Sherman '04, Watkins '12, Knox '12, Nichols '16. The annual December meeting of the association was set for December 15 in Commons Hall.

Treasurer Myers wants all outstanding bills of managers and heads of departments to be handed to him before December 12.

CLINTON BOYS INVADE SOPER GYMNASIUM

"Big Brother" Movement Brings Village Lads to Hill. College Men Speak

Over eighty Clinton boys stormed the Hill Thursday afternoon, and under the guidance of Griffith and Huntsman, working in co-operation with the local revival, took possession of the Soper Gymnasium before the student body was aware of what had happened. Even "Chief" Myers had to bow to their demands and address them before they would permit him to use the floor.

Other notables who were forced to appear before the invaders and offer words of council were Captain Brockway, for the track team; Captain "Joe" Behan, for the baseball team: "Charley" Peck, for the football department; "Brad" Ogden, for the social committee; "Jim" Thompson, for the "Big Brother" committee; Rev. W. P. Soper '04 and Mr. C. R. Drum, the evangelist who is spending the week in Clinton. Refreshments were served.

The next event in the campaign will be a hike starting from Clinton next Saturday in charge of Ogden.

STUDENTS HEAR DRUM

About 60 Hamilton students attended the Sunday evening lecture given at the Tabernacle, Clinton, by Evangelist Drum on the subject "The Other Fellow's Sister." Prof. Frank H. Wood and Rev. Willard P. Soper '04 were on the platform, and the Y. M. C. A. orchestra furnished music. The talk was a vivid and forceful appeal for clean, straight living. The students gave the long yell for Drum and at the close of the service marched "up the trail." Mr. Drum shook hands all round.
